

[REDACTED]

From: Liz and Ron [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, January 23, 2013 1:02 PM
To: LNGStudy
Subject: comment on LNG exports

We oppose the export of liquefied natural gas.
The environmental and health Impacts associated with fracking deep shales for natural gas are simply not worth the risk, when the main purpose is to make more money for multi-national corporations.
If natural gas development is about energy independence for the US, then we should take the time to do it right and use the the natural gas here.

Liz McDowell and Ron Boyer

[REDACTED]
Grantsville, MD [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]